

Roundtable 2004

Type of event	scientific
Participants	ED SIG members and partners, and other interested parties
Chair	Anastássios Perdicoúlis, ED SIG leader/ representative
Place	Gibbs Room, Keble College, University of Oxford, Oxford, UK
Time	13:35-14:30, 28 July 2004
Host	22 nd International System Dynamics Conference

Minutes

1. EPA-CREM: draft review — suggested by Silvia Ulli-Beer

Resolutions

- (a) Review of the draft
  - (b) Committee to be led by Silvia Ulli-Beer
  - (c) Report to the ED SIG
2. Discover shared interests with other entities, and create synergy: project future links/ partnerships — suggested by Anastássios Perdicoúlis
    - Economics/ Ecological Economics/ Environmental Economics
    - Sustainable Development
    - Planning
    - Environmental Impacts
    - System Dynamics Groups and/ or Chapters
    - Governments or NGOs (e.g. UN, US-EPA, EU-EEA)
    - other entities

Resolutions

- (a) General call for the identification of conferences in which the ED SIG could create themes; reply to Anastássios Perdicoúlis
  - (b) Specific link with Ecological Economics (e.g. ED theme in their annual conference); to be handled by Ali Kerem Saysel
3. How to make Environmental Dynamics more “dynamic” — suggested by Anastássios Perdicoúlis
    - online discussions (SDsustain)
    - case studies/ projects/ collaborations
    - collection and registration of published material (Resource Database)
    - working papers (Repository)
    - other ideas

Resolution

- (a) General call for ideas regarding the development of Environmental Dynamics; reply to Anastássios Perdicoúlis